

A Teaspoonful Equals A Large Lemon

"Pomona Lemon Juice" is not a flavoring extract. It is real lemon juice—but concentrated to over three times its natural strength. Dilute it with three parts water and you have the normal lemon juice. "Pomona Lemon Juice" is prepared in the heart of the lemon district and is best for every purpose for which fresh lemon juice is desired. Cheaper to buy—more convenient to use.

NO ANNEXATION

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]

LONDON, May 7.—Premier Brătianu of Rumania, interviewed by Russian newspaper men, said, according to a dispatch from Petrograd, that peace without annexation could not refer to the reunion of Transylvania with Rumania. Premier Brătianu said that such a step would not be annexation but the annulment of the seizure by the Magyars of territory populated by Rumanians.

CHANGE GIVEN PHOENIX WOMEN TO AID NATION

The women of Phoenix are to be given an opportunity to do their share in helping the United States win the war. A meeting is to be held Saturday night at the Arizona hotel under the auspices of the committee on production, conservation, and distribution of food of the State Council of Defense. It is the intention of those in charge of the meeting to form a sub-committee.

President Dwight B. Heard of the council will return from Washington this morning. He will act as chairman of the meeting.

Dr. R. H. Forbes of Tucson will be the principal speaker of the evening. He will point out to the women assembled, the object of the meeting and give advice as to the best manner in which to go about to attain the ends desired.

Other speakers of the evening will be Miss Eggleston, Mrs. Garret Schlar, Mrs. Foster Roswell, Miss Julia Harbeck and Leland F. Parkes, of the extension service of the University of Arizona.

Going to Tucson

The headquarters of the Arizona state council of defense will be transferred to Tucson temporarily the latter part of the week.

On Thursday, the committee on food production and conservation of which Dr. von Kleinsmid is chairman will meet. In addition the following committees will gather at Tucson, the committee on military training, Colonel Leroy Brown, chairman; the committee on labor, John L. Donnelly, chairman; the committee on scientific research, Dr. D. T. McPherson, chairman; and the committee on revenue, James S. Douglas, chairman.

The committees will conclude their labors Thursday, and make a report to the executive committee which will meet there the following day.

PART OF LARGE CONGREGATION ORGANIZES NEW

One of the largest automobile organizations in the state started to move yesterday. It is a big job, but in spite of this, McArthur Brothers expect to have several departments in their new location on South Central avenue by this evening.

Only the main offices and the departments which have been located on North Central avenue are being moved at present. The new building is not yet completed, and it will be several weeks before the used car service, Isko and Delco departments can be moved.

The new salesroom on South Central, will be one of the finest rooms of its kind in the southwest. The McArthur colors, gray and orange, will predominate. The new large parlors being alternately finished in these two colors.

McArthur Brothers are agents for the Packard, Jeffery and Dodge cars, as well as the Delco light and Isko.

TO GIVE FLAG FOR PRESIDIO

The Arizona flag will wave at the Presidio.

Members of Maricopa Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will present the state flag to the Arizona men who leave in a few days for the officers' training camp in San Francisco. This was decided at a meeting of the chapter yesterday when it was voted to take this step. Although the gathering was a social affair it was agreed to hold a short business session during which period Mrs. H. L. Chandler, state regent, presented her annual report. There were brief talks by Mrs. P. A. Fowler, Mrs. T. C. Reynolds, Mrs. H. A. Gould and others.

The meeting was in the nature of a picnic luncheon at the Woman's club and was given in compliment to Mrs. Chandler, state regent and Mrs. Ed. Shaw, retiring chapter regent and Mrs. H. A. Gould, incoming chapter regent.

TUCKER PINNEY COMMISSIONED

That Tucker Pinney, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Pinney, has received a lieutenant's commission in the officers' reserve corps was the word that reached Phoenix yesterday from the coast.

Young Pinney, who is a junior at Stanford, is at present acting as private secretary and clerk to Major Bugge and will leave Palo Alto, May 15, for the Presidio. When the major arrived in the college town he asked President Wilbur of the university to recommend a young man who would make an efficient clerk and the first name suggested by the head of Stanford was the Phoenix boy.

Pinney is a graduate of the local high school and was popular with the student body while here.

BAR TO TAKE UP PAPER CENSURE

That a meeting of the Maricopa County Bar association will be called for the purpose of censuring certain articles which appeared in Dunbar's Weekly relative to the decision handed down by Judge Stanford in the Hunt-Campbell contest was the rumor about town yesterday.

It is understood that the members of the bar disapproved of the editor's comments and the meeting will be called to adopt resolutions in condemnation of the article and the treatment accorded Judge Stanford.

SCHOOL BOARDS HOLD MEETING

Whether or not manual training and domestic science should be emphasized in the rural schools was discussed by the trustees of circuit number two, including Washington, Roosevelt, Wilson, Pendergast, and Balz, at a meeting held in the office of the county school superintendent yesterday. The only opposition to the plan was the expense item—the opinion of not a few of the trustees being that the taxpayers would object to the additional strain.

No conclusion was reached and the matter will be taken under consideration at a later date. It will be one of the subjects discussed at a meeting of the Maricopa County Trustees association called for 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Monroe school.

FOUR MORE BODIES FOUND

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
HASTINGS, Colo., May 6.—Four unidentified bodies were recovered late today from the Hastings mine of the Victor-American Fuel company in which 120 men were entombed ten days ago, making a total of 71 bodies removed from the mine since the disaster.

ONG KEE PLANS COURT BATTLE

That the Chinatown murder trial will bring to light the Tong feud features that have so far been in the background, but known to exist, is believed by the local authorities. Ong Kee, alleged highbinder and gun man, who is charged with killing Gin Yeung and has been identified by eye-witnesses as the murderer, was assigned before Justice Wheeler yesterday.

When informed of his legal rights, the Chinaman announced that his attorney would arrive from the coast within a few days. Ong was attempting to board a train for Los Angeles when captured by Deputies Balz and Warren at Peoria and it is believed that the members of the Tong to which he is alleged to belong will protect him as far as lies in their power.

Justice Wheeler has set the preliminary hearing for 1:30 o'clock Friday afternoon and remanded Ong to the custody of the sheriff without bond.

REVIVAL OF FRIENDSHIP

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, May 7.—What is considered a future indication of the revival of Mexican friendship for the United States was seen at the Cinco de Mayo banquet in Matamoros last night when American flags were

THE FIRST PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES owned and used The Encyclopaedia Britannica, 3rd Edition, in its original bulky, unwieldy form, printed on old-fashioned THICK PAPER which necessitated a large, awkward book that had to be supported upon a table.

IN 1797 the stage coach traveling between Philadelphia and New York took two days to cover the ninety miles. In 1917 the Pennsylvania Railroad Express, over practically the same route, makes the run in two hours.

In 1797 it meant a four-hour drive by horse and carriage from Perth to the Golf Club at St. Andrew's. In 1917 you can easily motor over the same twenty-five miles under the hour.

In 1797 a sailing vessel often took three months to make the voyage from New York to Liverpool. In 1917 the Mauretania can make the same trip in just over five days.

There is just as much difference between The Encyclopaedia Britannica, printed on old-fashioned thick paper, and the new Britannica, "Handy Volume" Issue, printed on genuine India paper, as there is between the stage coach of 1797 and the Philadelphia Express of 1917; between the horse and carriage, traveling eight miles an hour, and the modern motor, traveling 50 miles an hour; between the sailing vessel and the ocean steamship.

If you want the old-fashioned stage coach-horse and carriage-sailing vessel kind of an Encyclopaedia Britannica you need not be in any hurry to buy now. You can get the heavy, bulky, thick paper Britannica at any time.

But if you want the modern "Handy Volume" Encyclopaedia Britannica, printed on genuine India paper, you must order at once.

The sets of the "Handy Volume" Britannica, printed on genuine India paper, now in stock are all that we can get. These are going at the rate of more than 2000 sets a week. The end of this sale is almost here. When the last set is sold no one will be able to buy the Britannica in this, its handiest form, at any price. No more can be printed. We cannot get another set from the publishers, because they positively cannot get any more of the genuine India paper. No more India paper can be made because two necessary raw materials—flax from Belgium, Germany or Ireland and hemp from Russia—because of the war, are now absolutely unobtainable, and no more can be secured for many years.

Note:—This also means that no more of the Cambridge University issue of the Britannica and Century Dictionary can be had on genuine India paper.

We could probably sell many thousands more sets of the "Handy Volume" Issue of The Encyclopaedia Britannica if we could get them. As this sale nears the end we are receiving, daily, thousands of inquiries asking for information about the "Handy Volume" Britannica on this wonderful India paper.

When we announce the last day on which orders can possibly be filled we know that many orders will be sent in that we cannot supply sets for.

used profusely in the decoration of the large American flag was displayed on banquet room. Several American guests attended. In one end of the room a large Mexican and an equally large American flag were displayed.

THE 25th PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES has the advantage of using The Encyclopaedia Britannica, 11th Edition, which contains 50% more reading matter, but is printed on thin INDIA PAPER and is as easy to hold and read as a magazine.

IN 1797 the stage coach traveling between Philadelphia and New York took two days to cover the ninety miles. In 1917 the Pennsylvania Railroad Express, over practically the same route, makes the run in two hours.

In 1797 it meant a four-hour drive by horse and carriage from Perth to the Golf Club at St. Andrew's. In 1917 you can easily motor over the same twenty-five miles under the hour.

In 1797 a sailing vessel often took three months to make the voyage from New York to Liverpool. In 1917 the Mauretania can make the same trip in just over five days.

Last June, when we had to advance the price of the "Handy Volume" Britannica a few dollars, over 17,000 orders came in after the last day of the low price.

We warn you now—the remaining sets of the "Handy Volume" Britannica, printed on this wonderfully thin, opaque India paper, that makes each volume only 1 inch thick, will be exhausted in less than three weeks.

Tens of thousands of people have written for and received our descriptive book that tells all about the Britannica. They are making up their minds and ordering at the rate of more than 2000 a week.

Now you must order or you Never can get it

It is too late now—the sale is too nearly over—for you to write for information about this wonderful work. Because—the last procurable set will be sold before you could get our Britannica booklet, read it, make up your mind about buying and get your order back to us.
